SECOND CONGRESS.

OF THE UNITED STATES:

At the First Session, begun and held at the City of PHILADELPHIA on Monday the Twenty-Fourth of October, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-One.

An ACT making Alterations in the Treasury and War Departments.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled, That there be an Accountant to the department of War, who shall be charged with the settlement of all accounts relative to the pay of the army, the subsistence of officers, bounties to soldiers, the expenses of the recruiting service, the incidental and contingent expenses of the department; and who shall report from time to time, all such settlements as shall have been made by him, for the inspection and revision of the accounting officers of the Treasury; and the said accountant shall also be charged with the settlement of all claims for personal service authorized by the act of this Congress of the Twenty-seventh of March last, and of all military claims lodged in the late office of the Paymaster general and commissioner of army accounts, which are not foreclosed by the acts of limitation of the late Congress, and he shall report from time to time, all such settlements as have been made by him, for the inspection and revision of the Comptroller of the Treasury. The compensation of the said accountant shall be a yearly salary of one thousand two hundred dollars.

And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the United States shall disburse all such monies as shall have been previously ordered for the use of the department of war by warrants from the treasury; which disbursements shall be made pursuant to warrants from the Secretary at War, countersigned by the accountant.

And be it further enacted, That there be a Paymaster to reside near the head quarters of the troops of the United States. That it shall be the duty of the said paymaster, to receive from the treasurer all monies which shall be entrusted to him for the purpose of paying the pay, the arrears of pay, subsistence or forage, due to the troops of the United States. That he shall receive the pay abstracts of the paymasters of the several regiments or corps, and compare the same with the returns or muster rolls which shall accompany the said pay abstracts. That he shall certify accurately to the commanding officer, the sums due to the respective corps, which shall have been examined as aforesaid, who shall thereon issue his warrant on the said deputy paymaster, for the payment accordingly. That copies of all reports to the commanding officer, and the warrants thereon, shall be duly transmitted to the office of the accountant of the war department, in order to be there examined and finally adjusted at the treasury. That the said paymaster shall give bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, with two sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of his duty, and he shall take an oath faithfully to execute the duties of his office. That the compensation to the said paymaster shall be sixty dollars monthly, with the same rations and forage as a major.

And be it further enacted, That no assignment of pay made after the first day of June next, by a non-commissioned officer or private, shall be valid.

And be it further enacted, That all purchases and contracts for supplying the army with provisions, clothing and supplies in the quartermasters department military stores, Indian goods, and all other supplies or articles for the use of the department of war, be made by or under the direction of the treasury department.

And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the treasury shall direct the superintendence of the collection of the duties on import and tonnage as the mail judge best. That the present office of Assistant to the Secretary of the treasury be abolished, and that instead thereof there be an officer in the department of the treasury, to be denominated Commissioner of the revenue, who shall be charged with superintending, under the direction of the head of the department, the collection of the other revenues of the United States and shall execute such other services, being conformable to the constitution of the department, as shall be directed by the Secretary of the treasury. That the compensation of the said Commissioner shall be a salary of one thousand nine hundred dollars per annum.

And be it further enacted, That in every case of an account or claim not finally adjusted, upon which the present comptroller of the treasury, as Auditor, may have decided, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the revenue, and of the Auditor of the treasury, finally to adjust the same, and in case of disagreement between the said commissioner and auditor, the decision of the attorney general shall be final.

And be it further enacted, That in case of the death, absence from the seat of government or sickness of the secretary of state, secretary of the treasury or of the secretary of the war department, or of any officer of either of the said departments whose appointment is not in the head thereof, whereby they cannot perform the duties of their said respective offices, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, in case he shall think it necessary, to authorize any person or persons at his discretion to perform the duties of the said respective offices until a successor be appointed, or until such absence or inability by sickness shall cease.

And be it further enacted, That the forms of keeping and rendering all public accounts whatsoever, shall be prescribed by the department of the Treasury.

And be it further enacted, That in addition to the compensations allowed to the Comptroller, Auditor, Treasurer, and Register of the Treasury, by the "act for establishing the salaries of the executive officers of Government, their assistants and clerks," and to the Attorney General by the "act for allowing certain compensations to the judges of the Supreme and other courts, and to the Attorney General of the United States," the said officers respectively shall be allowed the following yearly sums, viz: the Comptroller four hundred dollars; the Auditor four hundred dollars; the Treasurer four hundred dollars; the Register five hundred dollars; the Attorney General four hundred dollars.

And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the treasury be authorized to have two principal clerks, each of whom to have a salary of eight hundred dollars per annum; and that the salary of the chief clerk of the department of war be at the rate of eight hundred dollars per year.

And be it further enacted, That the restriction on the clerks of the department of the treasury so far as respects the carrying on of any trade or business, other than in the funds or debts of the United States or of any state, or in any kind of public property, be abolished, and that such restriction so far as respects the funds or debts of the United States, or of any state, or any public property of either, be extended to the commissioner of the revenue, to the several commissioners of loans, and to all persons employed in their respective offices, and to all officers of the United States concerned in the collection or disbursement of the revenues thereof under the penalties prescribed in the eighth section of the act, entitled "An Act to establish the treasury department," and the provisions relative to the officers in the treasury department, contained in the "Act to establish the post office and post roads," shall be and hereby are extended and applied to the commissioner of the revenue.

JONATHAN TREMBULL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
RICHARD HENRY LEE, President pro tempore of the Senate.
Approved, May eighth, 1792.
G. WASHINGTON, President of the United States.

LONDON, February 17.
A great commercial house at Bourdeaux has received a letter from a correspondent at Madrid, dated January 26th, stating that the inhabitants of the capital of Spain are in a great ferment, and the court in the utmost consternation.

The occasion is stated to have been as follows:

The Corregidor of Madrid has given leave to a book seller to print an edition of the French Constitution, on condition of printing but a very small number of copies. Five or six thousand were, however, printed, which were instantly purchased and carried off.

Count Florida Blanca, the minister, gave orders to seize the printer, the Corregidor, the copies, and the buyers of the work.

This proceeding roused the indignant people; and it is also stated that the minister paid very dear for his arbitrary rashness.

The letter concludes thus—
"Things are going forward here, which I dare not trust to paper!"

RICHMOND, May 5.
Sometime last week a negro woman in the county of James City, was delivered of a very extraordinary child. It had two heads and necks, four arms, four legs and thighs, and every other part distinct for two male children except the body, which was entire; there are an appearance of two teats, and one navel, but as large as two fine children. It was conjectured there were only one set of lungs and bowels, and it measured over the hips one foot.—The woman is likely to do well.

LEXINGTON, July 21.
Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Fort Washington, to his friend at this place, dated the 15th inst.
"News has been received at Sr. Vincennes, by an Indian sent from Maj. Hamtramck to L'Anguille (the village destroyed by Gen. Wilkinson last August) that a party of the Shawanese had fallen in with, and murdered a party of three or four men not very distant from one of our fortifications, that these men bore a flag, that the Indians conveyed the papers found in their possession, to some white men who could read, that these papers turned out to contain a talk from a Big Captain, which made the Indians regret their conduct, from this report, it is probable one of the flags sent out by Gen. Wilkinson, has been intercepted and cut off, but which is uncertain, tho there exists a strong presumption, that Col. Hardin was not of the party. The first flag consisting of three men, and Maj. Trueman's the same number, whilst Col. Hardin's was attended by one man only."
Extract of a letter from Paris, July 17.

"I sent you the latest accounts from Fort Washington, which place I left on the 15th instant. Intelligence came to Fort Jefferson on the 8th inst. by two prisoners who made their escape from the Indians on the evening of the 4th from labouring in a corn field. One of the above men was taken prisoner at the time Gen. Hammar was defeated, and belonged to capt. Zeiler's company; the other is William Duer, of Capt Buchanan's company of Levies. They bring certain accounts of the death of Maj. Trueman, Mr. Freeman, Debach and Jarret, who were with him; but bring no account of Col Hardin, as they came from a different part of the country from that to which he was destined. The Indians informed them that on the 25th of June they had been at Fort Jefferson, and took 8 men prisoners, that were out making hay, (which account does not admit of a doubt, as I saw an officer who was an eye witness to that transaction,) that as soon as they had moved the prisoners a small distance, they divided them, 4 were given to the Shawanese and the other 4 to the Chippewas; the Shawanese burnt theirs shortly after the division, but the Chippewas took theirs home with the intention of making labourers of them. The Indians are determined on war, and will not treat, but will kill every white person that attempts to go to them, either with or without a flag; they are fully possessed with the idea of the practicability of cutting off the effort with provisions to the out post, and by that means starve them to a surrender, which they mean shortly to attempt, and for that express purpose keep out 2 spies constantly, to give information when the next effort of provisions will pass. The prisoners farther inform, that 4 pieces of the cannon taken from Gen. St. Clair, are now lying on or near the battle ground."

Official accounts from Fort Washington, dated the 15th instant, state, "That notwithstanding the pacific overtures of the United States the Indians are for war. Maj. Trieman and the first flag are murdered at Glauce river—That Col. Hardin's fate is doubtful, but there is hopes that he has escaped by going to Sandusky."

An Extract from an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the settlement of the Claims of Widows and Orphans barred by the limitations heretofore established and to regulate the claims to be valid."

BE it further enacted, That any commissioned officer not having received the commutation of half pay and any non commissioned officer, soldier or seaman, disabled in the actual service of the United States during the late war, by wounds or other known cause, who did not desert from the said service, shall be entitled to be placed on the pension list of the United States, during life or the continuance of such disability, and shall also be allowed such further sum for the arrears of pension, from the time of such disability, not exceeding the rate of annual allowance, in consequence of his disability, as the Circuit Court of the District in which they respectively reside, may think just. PROVIDED, That in every such case, the rules and regulations following shall be complied with, that is to say:

First. Every applicant shall attend the Court in person, except where it shall be certified by two magistrates, that he is unable to do so, and shall produce to the Circuit court the following proofs, to wit:—A Certificate from the commanding officer of the ship, regiment, corps or company, in which he served, setting forth his disability, and that he was thus disabled while in the service of the United States; or the affidavits of two credible witnesses to the same effect. The affidavits of three reputable freeholders of the city, town or county, in which he resides, ascertaining of their own knowledge, the mode of life, employment, labour or means of support of such applicant for the last twelve months. Secondly. The Circuit court, upon receipt of the proofs aforesaid, shall forthwith proceed to examine into the nature of the wound, or other cause of disability of such applicant, and having ascertained the degree thereof, shall certify the same and transmit the result of their enquiry, in case, in their opinion the applicant should be put on the pension list, to the Secretary at War, together with their opinion in writing, what proportion of the monthly pay of such applicant will be equivalent to the degree of disability ascertained in manner aforesaid.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the district Court, in each district, shall publish this act in such manner as the Judge of the district Court shall think effectual to give general information thereof to the people of the district, and shall give like information of the times and places of holding the Circuit Courts in such district. And in districts wherein a Circuit Court is not directed by law to be holden, the Judge of the district Court shall be, and he is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers given by this act to the respective Circuit courts. And it shall be the duty of the Judges of the Circuit Courts respectively, during the term of two years from the passing of this act, to remain at the places where the said Courts shall be holden five days at the least from the time of opening the sessions thereof, that persons disabled as aforesaid, may have full opportunity to make their application for the relief proposed by this act.

KENTUCKY DISTRICT SCT.

By direction of the Hon. Harry Innes Esqr. Judge of the Court of the United States in and for the Kentucky district, I do hereby certify that the said Court is held at Huddonburgh on the third Tuesdays in the months of March, June, September and December annually.

THOMAS TODD, CLK. K. D. C.

STATE OF KENTUCKY, GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

At their first session begun and held at Lexington, on Monday the 4th day of June 1792.

An Act for altering the time for making certain returns.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That all process which would be returnable to the next August Court of Quarter Sessions, except such Courts as shall be held between the First and Tenth days of August, shall be and the same are hereby directed to be returnable to the September Court next, and the Clerks of the several Courts are hereby directed to make out their dockets and enter the same thereon accordingly.

This act shall commence and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

ROBERT BRACKENRIDGE, Speaker of the H. of Representatives.
ALEXANDER S. BULLITT, Speaker of the Senate.

Approved, June the 28th, 1792.
ISAAC SHELBY, Governor of Kentucky.

ANECDOTE.

AN inhabitant of Paris received a letter some time ago from a friend in Boston. It ran thus: "After a tedious and disagreeable passage, I am at length arrived in the Capital of New England; nothing worthy of remark took place during the voyage, unless you may think the following singularity deserving of your attention: A cabin boy fell from the mast head on deck and broke his leg; there being no Surgeon on board, one of the crew tied it up very tight with a strong cord, and wonderful to tell, the lad went immediately aloft, as if nothing had happened to him. You may guess my surprise at seeing such a cure performed in a manner so truly novel." This letter no sooner reached Paris, than the contents of it were communicated to the Chirurgical Society, who felt their talents hurt, and tacitly pronounced the fallow whose method of curing was attended with such success, to be their superior; one of the learned body composed a treatise, wherein he contend, that such a cure was every way possible; the arguments he laid down were irresistible; the curious and important work was going to be committed to the press when the gentleman received a second letter from his friend, in which were these words:—"I believe in my last, I omitted a trifling circumstance concerning the cabin boy; I forgot mentioning to you that his leg was a wooden one."

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

Mr. Editor, please to insert these few lines in Poets' Corner and oblige one of your subscribers.

On a Scolding Wife.

He— who ne'er has seen the furious Egean wave
Lash its bold shores—the foaming billows rave—
Heaven's fierce thunder crack—its lightning horrors blaze
Gaiest some high tower, rear'd up in ancient days
Who ne'er has seen the direful queen of beasts,
With fury madden'd—range th' Lybian wastes;
Who ne'er hath felt the trembling hunter's fears,
When the fierce Tygers in the woods he hears:
Such—at my abode, if they will there attend,
These shall see and hear together—without end:
Shall see the war of elements—hear the roar of storms,
And witness hurly-burly in all its dreadful forms:
Whate'er's impetuous in Heav'n, in Earth, in Hell in Sea,
My Cara Spōsa—Reader, pours out each day's gainst me.

I hereby notify that I will sell the following tracts of land viz. ten thousand acres on the Kentucky river at the mouth of Severn creek; five thousand acres on Gunpowder creek within a few miles of the Big-bone-lick; and fifteen thousand acres on the waters of Licking within about ten or twelve miles of Fort Washington, on the most reasonable terms, together or in parcels as may suit the purchasers, I will take in payment cash, negroes, cattle, sheep, or horses and mares, and will give a reasonable credit for one half the purchase money on receiving bond and approved security—I will also dispose of two thousand acres of land on the terms above mentioned situated on the dividing ridge between the north fork of Elk horn and Eagle creek which may with propriety be immediately settled, as a person inclinable to purchase may be shown the land by applying to the subscriber.

CRAIG, PARKERS and COM-

13 PANY

ARE now erecting a PAPER MILL at George Town, Woodford county; and as the public are deeply interested in the establishing for useful a branch of business, we flatter ourselves they will save all their Rags, for which we will give three pence per pound for those of a fineness above 700, two pence for all between 500 and 700, and for all under 500 a penny half penny. The above prices will be given in Lexington, by Messrs. Alexander and James Parker and a plan adopted to procure them in the different parts of the district shortly. If we are not disappointed in getting Rags, we expect to be able to furnish the district with paper the ensuing winter.

CRAIG PARKERS & Co.
N. B. The Rags must be clean.

DESERTED

ON the 12th inst from Fort Washington, John Smith a private soldier in Capt. Platt's company, and Regt. about thirty five years of age, five feet six inches high, dark complexion, brown thick short hair, and black but small eyes, rather slow in conversation, owing to a small impediment in his speech, an Englishman by birth and was enlisted at Reading in Pennsylvania: He carried off with him his regimental cloathing; but it is probable he will divert himself of them to disguise his appearance, from the manner and time of his departure, he perhaps is gone down the Ohio some small distance, and taken to the woods in order to strike at some of the settlements in Kentucky district—It is hoped every good citizen of the U. States will use his endeavors to apprehend the above deserter, for whom a reward of ten dollars will with all reasonable charges be paid, if secured so that he may be forwarded to this Fortress, or if delivered to any recruiting officer of the U. States.

MICAH McDONOUGH,

Ltut. & Adj. 2d Regt.

[The Printers throughout the U. States are requested to insert the above.]

I Do hereby forsworn all persons from buying or selling any thing to my wife Rebecca Helm, as she has eloped from me.
